Editor of the 1970 Arrow

There was happiness and satisfaction when the last page of the 1970 Arrow went to press. Mrs. Barton and I had worked endlessly to produce a "better yearbook", and we felt as if our efforts had paid off.

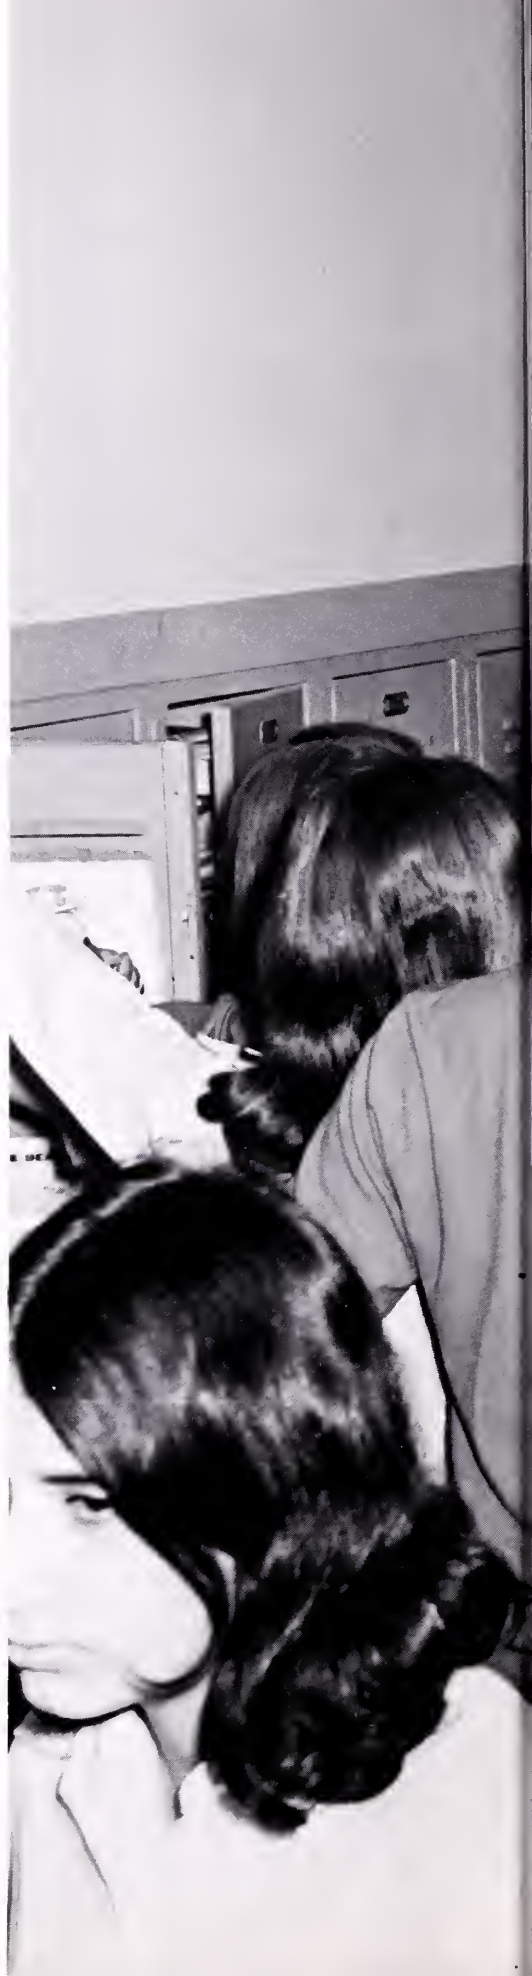

But there was also a trace of sadness in the yearbook's completion. The year 1969-70 cannot be relived except in memories and I hope I have recorded these memories as vividly as you lived them. As C.H.S. students, only you and I can look back upon this year through the eyes of love.

*We, the Arrow Staff, present this 1969-70 volume to
Mrs. Eleanor C. Reid*

... because she has inspired the students of C.H.S. to strive harder for the rewarding goals which they themselves have dreamed of. Mrs. Reid came to Cleveland High in 1966, and later became the Senior English teacher, as well as Senior sponsor. Through her efforts, the Hi-Y has grown to be an important Christian organization in the school. All of Cleveland High's activities reflect the care and work that Mrs. Reid has put forth. Cleveland High has surely become a better place for Mrs. Reid having been here.

Determination

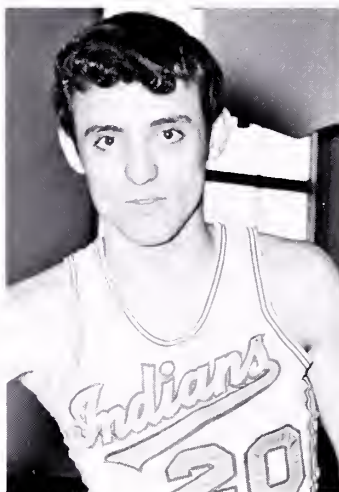

1 Coach Myrl Allen

... provided inspirational leadership for his boys. His record at CHS is a fantastic 54 wins and only 12 losses!

Varsity

3 Freddie Arrington

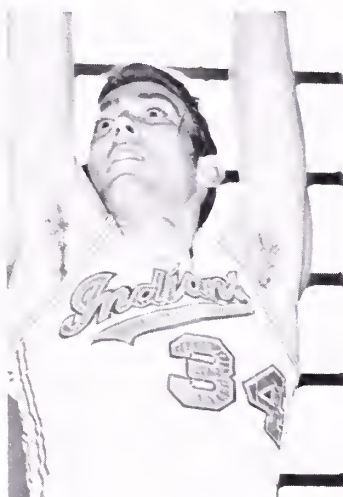

... was a real hustler all the time. Freddie's speed and quickness made him an outstanding defensive player.

4 Ronald Boggs

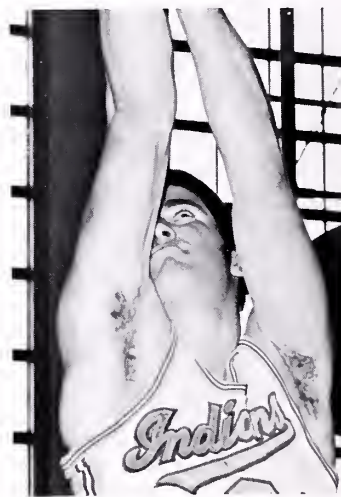

... was not a regular starter but he is an aggressive rebounder and often a scoring threat.

2 Marvin Amos

... was the leading scorer on the team. Marvin also excels in rebounding and defense.

5 Mike Combs

... was a very fine shooter and strong rebounder. Mike provided much of the leadership for the team.

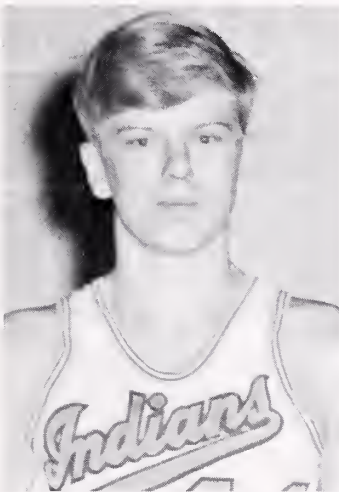

Basketball

6 Andy Cook

...was not a regular starter but he has tremendous potential. Andy will be counted upon to handle the center job next year.

7 Jerry Ferrell

...contributed to the team with his strong determination and will to win. Jerry will be counted on heavily for the next two years.

8 Tom Musick

.. was not as fast as some but his determination made him a steady and reliable ballplayer. Tom is also a good rebounder for his size.

9 Terry Sutherland

.. made up for his lack of size with quickness and speed. He is a fine outside shooter.

10 Mike Vance

.. had played only a little but his dedication to the team and game inspired the entire team.

The 1969-70 basketball season was high-lighted by Coach Myrl Allen's fiftieth win during his four year coaching career at Cleveland. His record now stands at 50 wins and 12 losses. Marvin Amos and Mike Combs, two Cleveland High stand-outs, were placed on the All-County and All-District teams. These boys also became members of the Thousand Point Club in the state of Virginia.

Achievement

The Senior Class of 1969-70

"We'll all shine on"

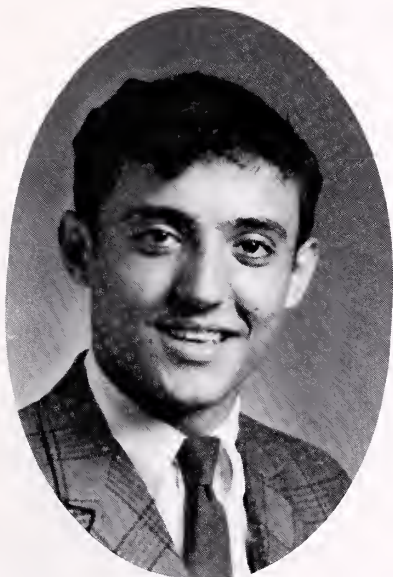

OFFICERS: Gail Breeding, Reporter; Brenda Musick Price, Secretary; Linda Smith, Treasurer; Vickie Jackson, Vice-President; and Freddie Arrington, President.

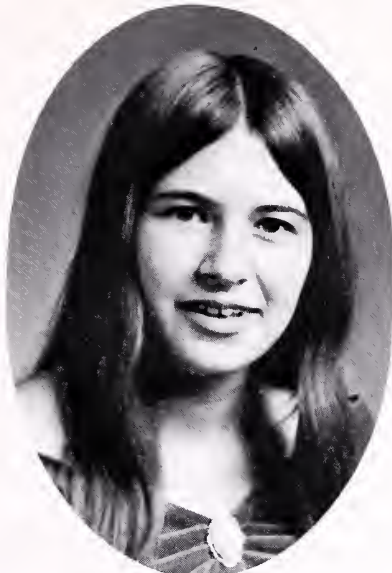

During our five years at C.H.S. we, the Class of 1970, have passed from adolescence to adulthood. We have enjoyed experiences which will fill our lifetimes with memories. Together we have shared laughter, shared tears, shared triumphs, and shared losses.

In this, our senior year, we have struggled for a foothold in tomorrow and we have spent long hours in preparation for our future. We have spent time in planning for graduation, measuring for caps and gowns, applying to schools and colleges, and for a few of us, acquiring wedding bands.

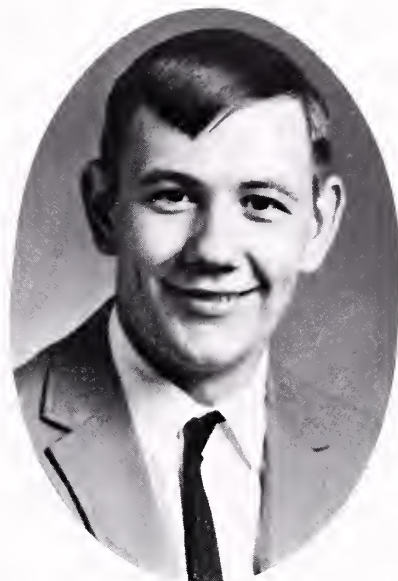

These years have been rich and rewarding and the Seniors of '70, not too gladly, say goodbye.

Nancy,

You are my best girlfriend in the world, but I'd never tell you. Not for anything.

Anyhow we've had some great times together as well as some bad ones. Don't forget the times like Waynesboro '68 and the walkie-talkies, movie & pizza parlor, the day we walked to the cat-hole, all the times we hid in the woods to sing, all the good times we've had in Lebanon and of course the fun with Becky & Gina in the river. Also remember playing dress-up in Bucky's old house & all the boys we've had crushes on. (Larry, Jimmy, Kenny K., David Jr., Robert & George!), Eddie, Roy, Dennis G. and finally, best of all Junior! Remember all these great times and forget the bad ones - plenty of them.

We're bound to have a blast at college next year. Right? Ever

Nancy,
you are a very sweet & cute girl. I have enjoyed going to school with you &
having classes with you.
Best of luck in the future.

Continued! And lets never turn out like our Aunts - ~~even tho there are~~! HA!!
And remember all the deep, dark secrets we've confided to each other! And don't forget the day the radiator hose busted!
As for school-life: Have fun with Miss McCoy. And remember the classes -
Home Ec. 102, Art and visiting Selma all the time. And driving Mr. Moore crazy!
Remember the terrible night with Terry!
And all the phone conversations! Remember everything about our friendship. And all the sneaky schemes you helped me plan! Good luck!
Your pal,
